Gary D. Schmidt 	Grades 6-12  9:15 am 10:15 am 11:15 am	Creating a Character from the Outside In	We begin making a character the same way we first meet another person: from the outside in. In this workshop, we'll figure out how understanding who are character is begins with what we see: the walk, the way she holds her hands, the way she sits, the choices she makes in speech. But that's only the beginning. Once we make decisions about those things, we can really start to understand what it is that a character wants and needs.	Athena E
Kevin Sands 	Grades 6-12  9:15 am 10:15 am 11:15 am	The Art of the Con	Learn why the tricks and gaffs that Cal and his friends pull off in Children of the Fox actually work—it's all in your brain!	Athena F
