Taryn Souders 	Grades 2-5 12:15pm 1:15 pm 2:15pm	Putting the History in Mystery	Where do great mysteries begin? Author Taryn Souders reveals the real history behind The Mystery of the Radcliffe Riddle —from bizarre wars (like the War of Jenkins’ Ear!) to secret messages in samplers, treasure hunts, and even Colonial concrete. Get ready for a fun dive into the past, packed with adventure and hidden clues!	Athena E
Kate Albus 	Grades 2-5 12:15pm 1:15 pm 2:15pm	Down the Rabbit Hole	The research rabbit hole is Kate's favorite place to be. Join her as she shares tips and tricks for bringing history to life in story form using books, newspapers, film, radio, historical experts, and even family history.	Athena F
Jedwin Smith 	Grades 2-5 12:15pm 1:15 pm 2:15pm	Treasure Hunters Wanted: The Epic Hunt for the Atocha’s Lost Fortune!	For 16 years, famed treasure hunter Mel Fisher searched for the Senora de Atocha—a legendary Spanish treasure ship lost off Florida’s coast in 1622. Many thought it was just a myth. The search cost lives. But in July 1985, author Jedwin Smith was there when Fisher’s team struck gold—literally! Join Jedwin as he shares the thrilling true story of how they uncovered $800 million in gold, silver, and emeralds from the ocean’s depths. Are you ready for an adventure?	Grand Hall 3
Josie Bailey 	Grades 2-5 12:15pm 1:15 pm 2:15pm	Storytelling Safari: Journey to the Heart of Kenya	Embark on an exciting storytelling adventure filled with humor, movement, and imagination! In this interactive session, Josie brings stories to life with expressive voices, vibrant dialects, and colorful costumes—often reflecting her African-American roots. Inspired by the Tome Book Award title The Elephant Girl by James Patterson, Ellen Banda-Aaku, and Sophia Krevoy, this experience will transport you straight to an elephant preserve in Kenya. Get ready to laugh, learn, and explore the magic of storytelling!	Grand Hall 5

Gary D. Schmidt 	Grades 6-12 9:15 am 10:15 am 11:15 am	Creating a Character from the Outside In	We begin making a character the same way we first meet another person: from the outside in. In this workshop, we'll figure out how understanding who are character is begins with what we see: the walk, the way she holds her hands, the way she sits, the choices she makes in speech. But that's only the beginning. Once we make decisions about those things, we can really start to understand what it is that a character wants and needs.	Athena E

Imagine what it would be like if your family was not a phone call or message away. This presentation will explore similarities and differences between modern times and the past, and the hardships of not being in communication with loved ones. If you're clever, maybe you can learn to write a secret message to a family member or friend that can get past nosy officials!	Grand Hall 3
C.J. Redwine 	Grades 6-12 9:15 am 10:15 am 11:15 am	5 Mistakes to Avoid When Writing Your Story	In this workshop, "5 Mistakes to Avoid when Writing Your Story," I'll walk you through some of the most common pitfalls young writers face and how you can easily avoid them. Whether you're dreaming up your next fantasy world or writing a mystery, these tips will help make your story stronger and more exciting. Join me to get practical advice that will improve your writing, boost your confidence, and make your stories stand out!	Grand Hall 5
